' Creed (plus a translation) 1. We believe in God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. 2. And in Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, 3. He descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead, 4. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from whence he will come to judge the living and the dead. 5. And in the Holy Spirit, 6. The holy catholic church, the communion of Saints, for the forgiveness of sins, 7. The resurrection of the body, 8. And the life everlasting. Amen. Why the Original Creed is What You Need This is only one translation that I've read about the Apostles' Creed, It has sparked some discussion as to whether it is actually the actual wording of the Apostles' Creed. It is widely accepted that the Apostles' Creed is a modified version of the Nicene Creed that was adopted at the Council of Constantinople in 381. So if you want the actual complete text, by all means get the original Nicene Creed. And hopefully at some point the Catholic Church will release the text of the original Nicene Creed. The Original Apostles' Creed This is the original form of the creed. But how does it differ from the Nicene Creed? Here is the Nicene Creed: 1. We believe in God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth 2. And in Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, 3. Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried, 4. He descended into hell; 5. the third day he rose again from the dead, 6. He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty, from whence he shall come to judge the living and the dead. 7. And in the Holy Spirit, 8. The holy catholic church, the communion of Saints, 9. And the resurrection of the dead, 10. And the life of the world to come. 11. Amen.
